Scott H. Campbell is a partner and leader of Best Best & Krieger LLP's Municipal Law practice group. Based in the firm's Los Angeles office, his practice concentrates on municipal and public entity representation, construction management and litigation. He has extensive trial experience and is a licensed mediator in the state of California.

City Attorney/General Counsel

Scott serves as the city attorney for the City of Avalon. In his role as city attorney, Scott attends City Council meetings and oversees all legal services. He also serves as general counsel for the Gold Coast Health Plan, a public entity that provides Medi-Cal services to approximately 200,000 residents of Ventura County.

He has also served as general counsel for the Lake Arrowhead Community Services District, attending board meetings, providing advice on compliance with the Brown Act and conflict of interest laws, and overseeing legal issues that arise. Scott has attended more than 1,200 Brown Act meetings during his 30 years of practice representing public agencies.

Public Construction

Scott has supervised public works projects involving more than $14 billion in public funding and has represented cities, special districts and community colleges in hundreds of construction projects. Some of his recent public works and construction projects include:

Health Care

- City of La Cañada Flintridge: Scott recently advised the City on its City Hall construction project, which converted the headquarters of Sport Chalet into City Hall. He also assisted with all legal issues concerning the design and installation of three new sewer projects worth more than $25 million. His work included supervising all contract disputes and litigation. The City of La Cañada Flintridge continues to retain Scott to supervise all legal issues associated with public works matters.
- City of Thousand Oaks: Scott re-wrote contracts to bring the City into complete compliance with recently passed laws and to protect the City against contractor claims.
- City of Thousand Oaks: Scott represented the City in a lawsuit regarding defective and incomplete work performed by a contractor, which settled on terms favorable to the City. His work included termination issues and working with a surety to have the work successfully completed.
- Los Angeles Community College District: Scott has represented LACCD in many construction cases involving defective work, termination of contractors and securing replacement contractors to complete work. He has also successfully sued sureties on behalf of LACCD and recovered funds from sureties. He recently rewrote the construction contract documents for LACCD multi-billion dollar construction program.
- Gold Coast Transit District: Scott supervised all aspects of a $55 million project for a new headquarters for the district as well as a bus yard and service center that will serve the district's 100 buses. He drafted the bid documents and contract, and is providing ongoing advice on change order requests. The project was successfully completed.
